

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy explains how the Crawley Islamic Centre and Mosque (CICM) uses any personal information we collect about you when you make a donation.

What information do we collect about you?

We collect information about you when you make a donation. The information we collect about you is used to process your donation. If you agree, we may contact you about activities, services or other things we think may be of interest to you.

We never pass on or share your personal information to external third parties, unless legally required to do so.

We will keep your personal data unless you ask us to delete it. If you ask us to delete your personal data, we will do so provided it is not within any period for which the data must be held due to accountancy rules.

Marketing

If you have consented to receive information, you may opt out at a later date. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you about activities, services or campaigns. If you no longer wish to be contacted about activities, services or campaigns, you may contact us in any of the ways given at the end of this notice.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please contact us in any of the ways given at the end of this notice.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

Changes to our privacy policy

This privacy policy was last updated on 13 April 2019.

How to contact us
